I must register my absolute disgust with the proposal to demolish this beautiful building as part of the proposed Gateway project. I live locally, and turning the corner past this building has been part of the joy of walking into town. It IS the gateway to Henley Street, it is stunning, it is part of our history, and rather than initiating yet more huge cost projects, could the council consider regenerating those areas that are already decimated (the Green Dragon site, the cinema site), and bringing back any sort of night life for local residents
Honestly, I thought this proposal was a joke, but apparently not. Absolutely horrified
