Subject: Demolition of the old St Gregory's school

I write to protest at the projected demolition of the old St Gregory's school at the top of Henley Street.

The building houses a very successful business and more importantly it represents part of the Catholic history of the town as well as being a much needed source of income for the parish of St Gregorys.

Leave the old St Gregory's school building as it is, use it (keeping the income for the parish) and re-jig your plans.

Yours faithfully,
