Question 11 – Reasons for feeling unsafe in Stratford District after dark

Question 26 – Any additional comments

Questionnaire

1.0 Introduction

Young peoples' views (under 18s) are not asked for their views in the National Best Value Satisfaction Survey (a cross section of council taxpayers in the District). To understand young peoples' points of view, a survey based on the 2006 National Best Value Satisfaction Survey was designed, with specific questions pertinent to young people added. By comparing directly with the previous survey, evaluation of the council's policies and strategies can be done and by comparing with the adult population, we can see differences in attitudes to the service offered.

The survey also gives the Council valuable intelligence on the quality of life for young people and to help improve the quality of services available.

2.0 Methodology

Questionnaires were distributed via Warwickshire County Council (Children, Young People & Families Directorate) to pupils of Henley High, Kineton High, Shipston high, Stratford Girls School, Alcester Grammar School, Stratford High and Studley High Schools. The first batch of questionnaires were distributed in December 2007/8, with a further batch distributed and completed in January and February 2008.

Table 1: Name of School
	(Base)	(436)	%
Henley-in-Arden High	160		36.7%
Kineton High	52		11.9%
Shipston High	52		11.9%
Stratford Girls	49		11.2%
Alcester Grammar School	44		10.1%
Stratford High	41		9.4%
Studley High	38		8.7%

The questionnaires were given back to the teachers who batched them up and then were collected by Stratford District Council.

All questions with "Don't Know" or "It does not apply" as an option have been taken out of the answer and recalculated, where appropriate.

3.0 Summary of Results

3.1 Quality of Life

- Respondents were asked to say what were the five most important things making somewhere a good place to live. The top five in the District were activities for teenagers; the level of crime; clean streets; shopping facilities and health services.
- Respondents were asked to think about their local area and indicate up to five things that most need improving. The top five improvements were better public transport; improved leisure facilities; better/more job opportunities; more youth facilities and affordable housing opportunities.
- 59% of those surveyed are satisfied with the local area as a place to live.

3.2 Youth Facilities

- Young residents were asked to think about the types of projects/activities they would like to see in a youth facility for 13-19 year olds. The top five responses were a place to relax with friends; chance to go on trips; sporting activities; access to outdoor education and access to the internet.
- Young residents were asked what they felt a youth facility should be. The top five replies were somewhere to relax with your friends and chill out; somewhere to try out new things; somewhere to learn new skills; safe and supportive and somewhere to get support with problems.

3.3 Recreational Activities and Venues

- 26% of young residents use SDC's sports/leisure facilities and events at least once a week, a lower percentage than in 2004. The number of young people never using them has risen from 6% in 2004 to 11% in 2007/8.
- 25% of young residents surveyed use parks and open spaces in the District at least once a week, a slightly lower percentage than in 2004. The number of young people never using them has risen from 5% in 2004 to 7% in 2007/8.
- Almost three fifths of young residents were satisfied with the sports/leisure facilities and events provided by the Council, a lower percentage than in 2004.
- Just under three fifths of young residents were satisfied with the parks and open spaces provided by the Council, a slightly higher percentage than in 2004. 16% of young respondents were dissatisfied with the parks and open spaces, compared to 24% of young residents in 2004.

3.4 Changes in Quality of Life

- The top five services included in the survey that have improved in the last three years the most are; shopping facilities (better 33% against 17%); roads and pavement repairs (better 30% against 25% worse); sport and leisure facilities (better 30% against 14% worse); health services (better 25% against 16% worse); and education provision (better 24% against 12%).

3.5 Anti-Social Behaviour

- Almost three-fifths of young residents felt rubbish and litter lying around is a very or fairly big problem. Almost three fifths of young residents also felt that vandalism, graffiti and other deliberate damage to property or vehicles are a very or fairly big problem. Over three quarters of the young people surveyed felt abandoned or burnt out cars are not a very big problem or not a problem at all.

3.6 Community Safety

- Asked how safe or unsafe young residents felt after dark in Stratford District, 39% felt safe with 33% feeling unsafe. This is a 10% improvement on 2004. However, compared to the survey on all residents in Stratford District the percentage of young residents in 2007/8 that felt safe in the District is 19% lower.
- 79% of young residents in the Stratford District felt safe when outside during the day, compared to 4% that felt unsafe in the District, this has slightly fallen since the 2004 (80%).

3.7 Information about the Council and its Services

- Young residents feel most informed about "how to complain to the Council" (32%) although compared to all residents (51%) the figure is lower. A quarter of young respondents feel informed about what the Council is doing to tackle anti-social behaviour in the local area.
- Over three quarters of young residents felt not very well informed or not well informed at all about how they can get involved in local decision making.
- A quarter of respondents indicated the local media is their main source to find out about SDC. This is slightly higher than the all residents figure (25% compared to 22%). A further 23% stated word of mouth. 14% of young respondents found out about Stratford District Council through information provided by the Council, compared to 43% of all residents.

3.8 About the Respondents Area

- Seven out of ten young residents agree that the local area is a place where people from different backgrounds get on well together, lower than both the 2004 and all residents results.
- 68% of young residents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their neighbourhood. This is a slight improvement from the 2004 survey (65%), but less than the all resident's survey (80%).
- Almost two thirds of young respondents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their village or town. This is on a par with the 2004 survey, but below the all resident's result of 78%.
- 67% of young residents feel not very strongly or not at all strongly about belonging to the Stratford District Council area. This is higher than both the 2004 survey (63%) and the all resident's survey (53%).
- Almost half of young residents disagree that they feel they can influence decisions that affect their local area compared just over one fifth that agree, compared to less than one third of respondents in the 2004 survey.

4.0 Results in Detail

4.1 The Quality of Life in this Area

Residents were asked to state what were the five most important things making where they lived a good place to live. The top five in the District were activities for teenagers; the level of crime; clean streets; shopping facilities and health services. The "other" results are included in the appendix.

Residents were asked to think about their local area and indicate up to five things that most need improving. The top five improvements were better public transport; improved leisure facilities; better/more job opportunities; more youth facilities and affordable housing opportunities. The "other" results are included in the appendix.

Looking at the percentage change compared with the previous survey, areas that have a higher improvement levels in 2007/8 compared with 2004 include young people involved with decision-making bodies (+11.2%) and better public transport (+9.1%). Those areas showing a lower score compared with 2004 include accurate tamper proof ID cards (-9.1%) and more affordable childcare facilities (-8.6%).

59% of those young people surveyed are satisfied with the local area as a place to live.

Looking at significant results:-

- 69% of male respondents, versus 54% of female respondents, are very or fairly satisfied with the local area as a place to live.
- Four fifths of young residents aged 11 years were fairly satisfied with the local area as a place to live compared to just over half of young respondents aged 14 years.

4.2 Youth Facilities

Young residents were asked to think about the types of projects/activities they would like to see in a youth facility for 13-19 year olds. The top five responses were a place to relax with friends; chance to go on trips; sporting activities; access to outdoor education and access to the internet. The "other" results are included in the appendix.

Looking at significant results:-

- The three most popular responses from male respondents were sporting activities (74%), place to relax with friends (57%) and chance to go on trips (54%). In comparison, young female respondents were more likely to choose a place to relax with friends (81%), chance to go on trips (63%) and access to outdoor education (48%) as projects/activities they would like to see in a youth facility.
- 11 year olds would most like to see sporting activities available in a youth facility, 13 year olds would most like a chance to go on trips and those respondents aged 12 and 14+ would most like to use a youth facility as a place to relax with friends.

Young residents were asked what they felt a youth facility should be. The top five replies were somewhere to relax with your friends and chill out; somewhere to try out new things; somewhere to learn new skills; safe and supportive; and somewhere to get support with problems. The "other" results are included in the appendix.

Overall, the 2007/8 results are very similar to those seen in 2004 except for "somewhere to learn new skills, 50% from 59% in 2004 and "somewhere to get information in a wide range of services on a wide range of issues", 18% in 2007/8 versus 26% in 2004.

Looking at significant results:-

- 48% of young female residents, compared to 30% of male respondents, believe a youth facility should be somewhere to get support with problems.
- 55% of male respondents, as opposed to 45% of female respondents, believe a youth facility should be somewhere to learn skills.
- Across all aged groups, the highest percentage of young residents feel a youth facility should be somewhere to relax with friends and chill out.

4.3 Recreational Activities and Venues

26% of young residents use SDC's sports/leisure facilities and events at least once a week, a lower percentage than in 2004. The number of young people never using them has risen from 6% in 2004 to 11% in 2007/8. Compared with the adult population, 11% of young people have never used SDC's facilities versus 29% of the adult population.

Looking at significant results:-

- 29% of young males, as opposed to 21% of young females, say they use sports / leisure facilities and events at least once a week.
- 42% of young residents aged 11 years say they use sports / leisure facilities and events at least once a week compared to only 3% of respondents aged 17 years.

4.5 Anti Social Behaviour

Young residents

Almost three fifths of young residents (59%) felt rubbish and litter lying around is a very or fairly big problem. The same proportion felt that vandalism, graffiti and other deliberate damage to property or vehicles are a very or fairly big problem. Over three quarters of the young people surveyed felt abandoned or burnt out cars are not a very big problem or not a problem at all. Exactly three-quarters did not feel that noisy neighbours or local parties are a problem.

Looking at significant results:-

- Male respondents were most likely to state rubbish and litter lying around as either a very big or fairly big problem (57%). In comparison, female respondents felt vandalism, graffiti and other deliberate damage to property or vehicles were either a very big or fairly big problem (64%).
- 72% of respondents aged 17 years felt vandalism, graffiti and other deliberate damage to property or vehicles were a very big or fairly big problem. Almost two thirds of respondents aged 15 years felt people using or dealing drugs was either a very big or fairly big problem.

For all elements of anti-social behaviour, young people have a more negative view than the adult population. Young people themselves (50%) are as likely to say teenagers hanging around on the streets are a very or fairly big problem as adult respondents feel.

A third of young people themselves are more likely to say attacks on people because of their skin colour, ethnic origin or religion is a problem compared with just 5% of the adult population.

4.6 Community Safety

Asked how safe or unsafe young residents felt after dark in Stratford District, 39% felt safe with 33% feeling unsafe. This is a 10% improvement on 2004. However, compared to the survey on all residents in Stratford District the percentage of young residents in 2007/8 that felt safe in the District is 19% lower. The reasons for answering “fairly unsafe” or “very unsafe” after dark are included in the appendices.

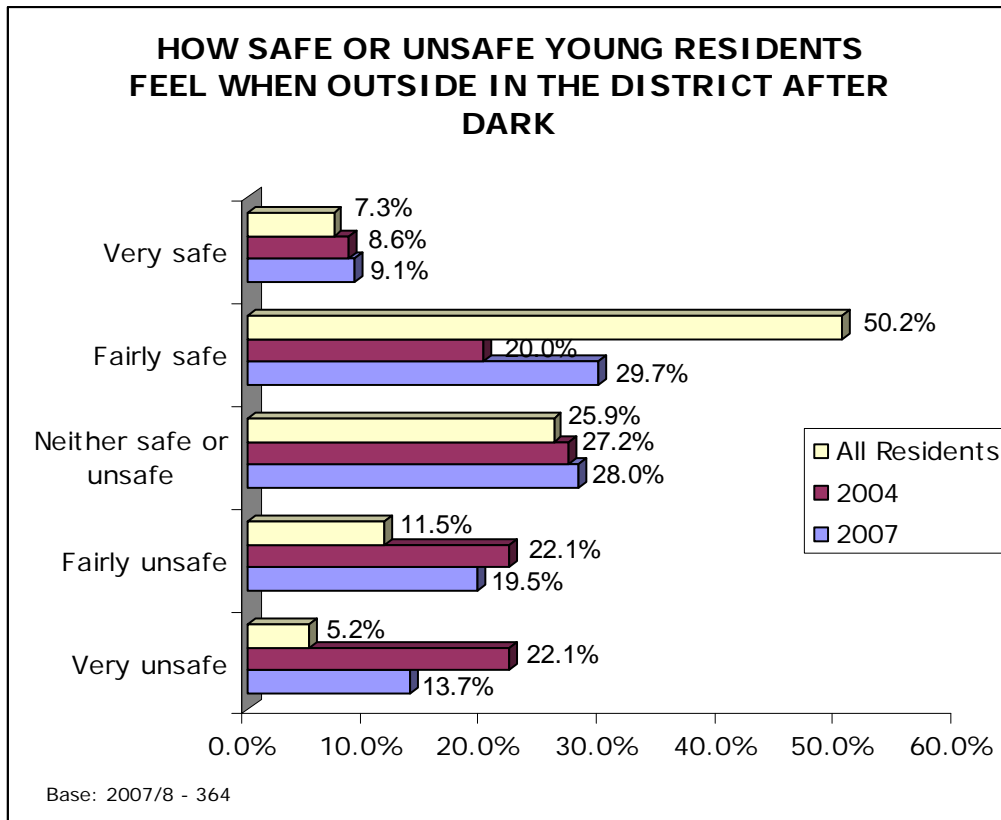

Looking at significant 2007/8 results: -

- 42% of females, compared with 23% of males feel fairly or very unsafe when outside in Stratford District after dark.

- Yes If I'm on my own, because you don't really know who's about
- No real police support officers around town
- The level of serious crime is higher
- Because it's light and there are chavs
- As I can see everything but I might still get hurt
- Because people look weird and strange
- Because of all the cars
- Hoodies

4.7 Information about the Council and its Services

Young residents feel most informed about “how to complain to the Council” (32%) although compared to all residents (51%) the figure is lower. A quarter of young respondents feel informed about what the Council is doing to tackle anti-social behaviour in the local area. Over three quarters of young residents felt not very well informed or not well informed at all about how they can get involved in local decision making.

Looking at significant 2007/8 results: -

- 46% of young male respondents say the Council keeps residents very well or fairly well informed about how to complain to the Council, compared to 21% of young female respondents. 87% of young female residents say the Council keeps residents not very well informed or not well informed at all about how they can get involved in local decision making, compared to 68% of young male residents.
- All respondents aged 18 felt the Council keeps residents not very well informed or not well informed at all about how they can get involved in local decision making, how to complain to the Council and what the Council spends its money on. However, the sample size for this question is small (7 interviewees) and therefore results should be seen as indicative rather than statistically robust and treated with caution.

68% of young residents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their neighbourhood. This is a slight improvement from the 2004 survey (65%) but less than the all resident's survey (80%). Almost two thirds of young respondents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their village or town. This is on a par with the 2004 survey but below the all resident's result of 78%. 67% of young residents feel not very strongly or not at all strongly about belonging to the Stratford District Council area. This is higher than both the 2004 survey (63%) and the all resident's survey (53%).

Looking at significant 2007/8 results: -

- 71% of young male respondents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their neighbourhood, compared to 66% of young female respondents. Almost half of male respondents feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to the County, compared to only 27% of female respondents that feel very strongly or fairly strongly, they belong to the Stratford District Council area.
- Three quarters of respondents aged 12 years feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to their village or town. In comparison, 41% of respondents aged 14 years feel not very strongly or not at all strongly, that they belong to their village or town.
- Almost half of respondents aged 12 years feel very strongly or fairly strongly, that they belong to the Stratford District Council area. In comparison, almost four fifths of respondents aged 17 years, feel not very strongly or not at all strongly, that they belong to the SDC Council area.

- Spa treatments
- Homework room
- Tag wall
- Horse riding
- Horse riding

Question 11 – Reasons for feeling unsafe in Stratford District after dark

- There are so many rowdy people on the streets
- Teenagers hang around on corners with alcohol, mostly drunk, they could do anything under the influence of alcohol
- Loads of teenagers hanging around smoking around the shops
- I can look after myself but there are many young people that will shout, swear and attack people.
- Especially in the Tesco express area in Alcester
- Antisocial and intimidating behaviour
- Chavs
- Chavs
- Rowdy youngsters
- Because I feel people lurk in corners, there are random noisy, aggressive teenagers hanging around
- The drug problem in Stratford and scummy people in dark places
- Scummy people milling around
- Because there are dodgy looking people out on the streets
- Because of rowdy teenagers. Not many people around
- People hanging around in the streets
- Lots of antisocial behaviour around Tesco express
- Because there are drug dealers around and drunk people
- Because there are large groups of yobs with their faces blocked out and they might not be doing anything wrong
- but its intimidating
- Because teenagers are hanging around and getting drunk and causing trouble
- Large groups of youths on the streets being antisocial
- Because there is a lot of chavs out late who shout at you for no reason
- Still a lot of people out hanging around
- Because you don't know who's about at nightmare
- When I'm on my own, sometimes I get bullied
- Violent and aggressive youths.
- Because you here all these drunk boys walking around and swearing
- Because someone may attack you
- If I am on my own there are lots of chavs and I feel threatened but sometimes they are fine
- Its dark and there are a few dodgy people who could be lurking
- Rowdy drunken people
- Some of my friends have been attacked and hurt
- I am scared someone will try and hurt me, my mum is worried so she wont let me out alone
- Large groups tend to hang around and are intimidating
- Groups of rough youth's demoralise the local community. The Bidford bridge is amass with vandals
- Scary people about
- Not enough lighting
- Yobs, worried about being beaten up
- Teenagers around at night
- You never know who's about
- Teen gangs
- Bad neighbours, groups of people in the streets
- Intimidating large groups of people
- Thugs on the street
- Lots of groups of people wondering around
- As you never know who's about and I don't trust people around here
- Shifty characters
- Hardly any street lights
- Because people shout at you from cars at night
- Because there are too many drunk people and you are scared they might attack you, there's not enough lights on the footbridge

- Because some places have no street lighting or are poorly lit
- On Fridays many young drunk people are hanging around, sometimes they approach
- Crime and drugs
- Hardly any street lamps so can't see where you're going
- Because there is not enough lighting and if you are on your own it is scary
- Because you don't know who is around and it is quite a big town. I would feel safe if there were more police
- on the streets
- Because of teenagers
- You don't know who is about, and judging by appearance it is not a very friendly place
- Because you don't know who is out there
- Due to the amount of pubs and people being drunk
- Drunken people, It's dark near the river
- Youths hanging around
- Strange and dangerous people hanging around
- Lots of drunk teenagers hanging around outside
- Around my area there are a lot of drug dealers and there are a perverts as well
- Because of the danger of getting raped or attacked
- Because of me and my friends
- Because of my mum stumbling around drunk
- Because it's dark and there are chavs
- People are about and you don't know who they are
- As I don't want to get stabbed, shot or raped.
- Because I don't want to get hurt
- You don't know who is lurking about
- Because they're all dirty chavs
- It depends where or what area you are in. I think more police on streets is important in busy areas.
- Because people look weird and suspicious
- Because it's dark
- Juveniles drunk and rowdy on streets
- Teenagers / gangs hanging around
- No
- Getting robbed
- Because there is trouble and fights there
- Drunk, etc and teenagers on streets. Scared of dark
- As not a very nice neighbourhood and everything that's happened nearby.
- There's lots of chavs
- Because you don't know who is outside
- My mum doesn't look after me, or my dad
- Lots of chavs and gangs hanging around
- Because you don't know if you're going to get attacked
- Don't know
- Because you can't see what's happening
- Chavs come out at night
- Because of all the gangs hanging around
- I don't like going anywhere after dark
- It's scary on your own
- Of people going to hurt me
- Because you don't know if there is anyone around you with a weapon
- Because there are too many dangerous youths
- Because you can be attacked
- You hear many stories about rape and abduction. I don't want it to be me
- Because it is harder to know where you are and more teenagers are about and I've never really felt safe with them about.
- Because of drunks and drug dealers
- Because you don't know what could happen to you
- Because you don't know what can happen
- Because you can be murdered
- Because people hanging around being louder

- Rough
- Because Stratford is rough now
- Because it's dark and you don't know who's about
- Because of chavs
- Because there are jobs on streets
- I don't like the dark
- You don't know who's out there

Question 26 – Any additional comments

- Get the local transport times and which bus stop they go to. Free Condoms, go to the gym by yourself from 14 up
- Get free condoms
- I live in Alcester and although you have said you will do something about young people hanging around in the Tesco Express area nothing has been done. They still hang around there in great numbers and intimidate people with there swearing and abominable stink.
- Too many people hanging around. The ASBO's are either not given out or do not work. What a waste of time and money! Nothing is ever done about it. As usual you talk a lot but don't do much at all
- In Alcester the police supposedly stopped teenagers hanging around Hopkins precinct, but they still do
- Public transport in villages such as Adens Grafton and Temple Grafton is terrible
- Public transport for villages is terrible! Get rid of jobs, the 9 o clock curfew is practically ignored
- How do you expect us to stop using cars if buses are so expensive
- We need more activities and a swimming pool. More shops, a train station and cinema
- Swimming pool in Alcester
- More shops and a train station or cinema in Alcester please
- Remove the betting shop near Tesco express and put cashes frozen assets back. Add bigger shops i.e. primark, take away Sommerfield and add Waitrose
- Rebuild the skate park in concrete
- Stratford leisure centre is very poorly run, the courts have no numbers, and the tennis courts are never ready in time
- There are too many chavs hanging around in Alcester
- Welcombe Hills should be renovated into a dedicated mountain bike track like Cannock chase
- Definite visible improvements now more behind the scenes social work
- Better social areas should be provided for the youth of Stratford plus better sporting opportunities and help in the community
- Public transport is so expensive, over 16's are expected to pay adult prices even if they are in full time education. It is impossible to find convenient parking in Stratford and buses/trains cost too much. Congestion is getting worse, parking harder and yet transport prices still rise!
- Studley needs to change drastically, it is becoming like the slums. Sick of chavs wanting to beat me and my family up
- I think there should be more affordable housing for young people
- I think the Council spends its money poorly, on things which are not necessary. As well as this the streets aren't kept clean enough
- Transport-there needs to be a Henley to Alcester bus. It is ridiculously expensive for an adult fare, at 17 I am in full time education yet am still expected to pay full prices which are very expensive for a short journey. There are no trains or buses from Stratford to Henley after 8.30 and this need to be corrected. Overall though it is a lovely place to live!
- I feel there are not enough buses going to the main towns such as Leamington. Although they go to Stratford and Banbury there is too long a wait till the next bus. Also the fact that 16 yr olds have to pay adult fair is ridiculous! We are not yet 18 so therefore not an adult, the cost is too high as well! Not only that but there are no bus shelters so we have to stand in the rain
- Improve public transport
- Improve public transport
- Improve public transport
- Public transport prices are extremely over priced
- I would really like public transport to be improved
- I really think Stratford should improve or include more facilities for teenagers; there isn't much for them to do. Perhaps improving shopping facilities
- Kineton high school is in desperate need of funding. Please remember about our rural high school that are the jewels in the Warwickshire crown, not Stratford high

- Kineton high school needs funding, especially for the sixth form common room as we, as students have to fund it all ourselves. And it is your job as a Council to provide these services for the children of your community. Not Stratford High, we need the money
- Give money to Kineton high school to build a new school please as we need it badly
- Local road surfaces
- Parking is bad
- Change bus fares, increase buses i.e. where they go, running times etc. More activities/youth groups for youngsters
- I think public transport prices are outrageous, I know with the increased petrol costs, prices have had to rise but it is still too expensive! It's cheaper to get a return from Stratford to Birmingham on the train than a bus return from Wellesbourne to Stratford. I think this is a major problem that needs sorting out
- More football facilities
- I think there should be a wider range of shops in Stratford; we have 3 department stores and not many decent clothes shops. I think there should be more facilities for young people and more cheap places to eat. More job opportunities for under 16's too
- More shops and teenage activities
- Can the Council not build the stupid footbridge for the tourists and spend the money on something we actually need, like the leisure centre that is falling apart
- More or better shops
- Please get an ice rink for Stratford. More shops please
- Please get a social club, ice rink and more shops
- Maybe more leisure activities such as bowling
- Maybe a concert hall like the NEC
- The swimming pool is dirty. Why do you need to improve the park? You don't need to chop down the trees either, also we need things to do in the evening
- Ice rink, more outside activities e.g. rock climbing etc, More care taken over the environment/pollution
- There needs to be more places for teenagers to go in Stratford, club for under 16/18 yr olds
- There needs to be more places for teenagers. e.g. open spaces/nightclubs
- I feel as a young pupil, I am very sociable but other people and I do not have any social facilities e.g. a club for u16 or u18 and maybe an ice rink!
- More money to Stratford high. The buses need improving.
- More things for teenagers to do
- We need something fun to do in the evenings and at the weekends. All we have is a dirty swimming pool, shopping or a children's park. We need something like bowling, ice skating etc
- Stratford needs to improve on its skate park and should allow a place just for kids to go to with no adults. Also a TGI Friday's
- Stratford needs an ice rink, a bowling alley and a TGI Fridays. Apart from that parking is expensive
- More for teenagers
- More for teenagers
- To be able to get free access to Stratford upon Avon leisure centre astro turfs, or at least a reduced fee. Also respect off the local police enough to let us have some leeway if we are just having fun and not causing trouble
- Free car parking everywhere
- Teenagers in Stratford do not want a youth club. It is too organised and nobody would use them, it would end up religious. A place where we could go just to hang out is needed, somewhere that police or members of the public do not bother us
- More public transport in and out of Stratford
- Not enough money is being put into Shipston High School
- Quinton is rather boring for teenagers. There's nothing to do. The public transport is poor - there is only 1 bus every hour. This makes it harder for me to get into town. A gym would also be good. Please do something about the transport.
- That the Council is rubbish. There are jobs on the streets and they all carry knives. We (British) people can not get a house or jobs as people from other countries. The Council is bad!

- It is rubbish, think about other areas than Stratford like Shipston
- More places for teens to chill out to avoid boredom. There is nowhere but car parks
- Hurry up and get better stuff for us to do
- This questionnaire is far too long. Make it shorter next time please!
- Shipston on Stour suck.
- Thank you
- Bullying on streets. Problem
- I don't live in Stratford. I want to live in Hackley Heath
- I don't live in Stratford but I go quite a lot and I think it's a lovely place
- On Q22 I have an ear problem called glue ear but it only effects my hearing when it is infected
- Oh my god, the canteen is too expensive
- I don't live in the Stratford District
- More kids stuff would keep children off the streets
- Chavs, hate them
- I got bullied for a couple of years and now it has finally stopped
- I live in Earlswood not Stratford
- I don't live in the Stratford District. I live in Shirley
- I would like some more police officers in my village and would like more areas to play football, rugby and hockey
- Because we don't have anywhere to play or hang around.
- Why do you need to know my postcode
- Why do you need my postcode
- More skate parks
- I don't live in Stratford. Brum all the way
- I don't live near Stratford so find some questions very confusing
- Why waste paper
- I don't live in Stratford District
- Why waste paper
- Make more stuff for us
- Have you got something against trees?
- Why waste paper?
- No, none of your information thank you
