

Personal Licences

A Guidance for Applicants

To obtain a Personal Licence

This Guide also covers renewal of, amendments to, and replacement of, Personal Licences

Applicants with any unspent convictions for relevant offences set out in the Act may find it useful to discuss their potential application with the Police and the Authority before formally making their application to the Authority for a Personal Licence.

The Council must grant a Personal Licence providing the following criteria are met:

- (a) The applicant is over 18,
- (b) The required fee is paid,
- (c) The applicant possesses a relevant QCA accredited licensing qualification,
- (d) The applicant has not forfeited a Personal Licence in the previous five years beginning with the day the application was made,
- (e) The applicant has not been convicted of any relevant offence, or foreign offence as defined in the Act,
- (f) The Police have not given an objection notice about the grant of a Personal Licence following notification of any unspent relevant offence or foreign offence,

The Council will liaise closely with the Police when an applicant is found to have an unspent conviction for a relevant offence as defined in the Act. Where an applicant for a Personal Licence has an unspent criminal conviction for a relevant offence, the police and Council may wish to interview the applicant should the police be minded to object to the grant of the licence.

If the Police make a representation to an application the matter will be referred to a Licensing Panel (three Councillors) for hearing. You and your legal representative and a Police representative will be invited to attend. Your application will be decided at that hearing

When you can expect to hear the outcome

If the Authority fails to decide your application within three months of receiving it, your application will be approved.

When your Personal Licence will become effective

Your Personal Licence will be valid from the day it is determined.

As the holder of a valid Personal Licence you would be eligible to send the Authority Temporary Event Notices for events planned for the future (up to 50 in a calendar year). The Authority would appreciate being given as much notice as possible (at least 10 working days is required).

When your Personal Licence needs to be renewed

A personal licence will lapse 10 years after it was issued, provided it has not been previously rescinded or revoked.

An application for renewal should be submitted no more than 3 months and no less than 1 month before expiry. Reminders will not be sent.

Holders of Personal Licences who fail to renew their licences at the appropriate time will have to re-apply as new applicants.
