Hi Rosemary,

The parish council has no comments to make on this. Please ask the inspector to proceed with the examination.

Kind regards,

Alison

Dear Rosemary,

I am writing to let you know that on 26 March, NPIERS published guidance on examinations aimed at both service users and examiners.

As a result, please find attached a note to send to the Parish Council and to place on your website in due course that offers the Parish Council an opportunity to comment on any/all Regulation 16 representations should it wish to do so. Please note that there is no obligation to comment, but the opportunity is there. The guidance suggests two weeks and you will see from my note that I suggest Friday 27 for any comments.

For your information, the guidance is available from the NPIERS website www.rics.org/npiers

Should there be any queries, please do not hesitate to get in touch,

Best wishes Ann
